

REAL ESTATE.

BUSINESS AT THE EXCHANGE.
The Board of Directors of the Real Estate Exchange has issued new rules to the Information Bureau, which will come into operation on Monday next. Hitherto members have been permitted to obtain any information they wanted FREE. After Monday next a fee of 10 cents is to be imposed for information as to assessments and all other ownerships above one. The reason of this change is to make the Bureau of information pay its own expenses. The present rate of inquiries is about 25,000 ownerships a year.

During the public hours yesterday John F. Smyth sold Nos. 439 and 495 East Houston-st., between Gorick and Maupin-sts., a store, 10 ft. wide by 18 ft. high, for $7,575, and Nos. 493 to F. McCabe for $7,425. The property rents for $2,000 per annum. The same unenclosed, sold No. 990, 1½ stories, with two rooms, a kitchen, and a back yard, for $2,500.
